

Where to See Native Wildflowers in Victoria and Further Afield

with thanks to member Agnes Lynn for these suggestions

The following is a list of places to visit right about now (April) when the wildflowers are at their peak:

Greater Victoria Urban Setting

- Anderson Hill - Oak Bay
- Uplands Park - Oak Bay
- Oak Bay Native Plant Garden (Beach & Margate) - Oak Bay
- Chinese Cemetery - Oak Bay
- Swan Lake Demonstration Garden - Saanich
- Rockland Native Plant Garden - Victoria
- Summit Park - Victoria
- Government House Woodlands - Victoria
- Royal BC Museum Native Plant Garden – Victoria

Capital Regional District

- Beacon Hill Park - Victoria
- Trial Island Ecological Reserve (restricted entry)
- Mount Tolmie Park - Saanich
- Mount Douglas - Saanich
- Bear Hill – Saanich
- Gore Park - Central Saanich
- Oak Haven Park - Central Saanich
- Horth Hill - North Saanich
- Juan de Fuca Recreation Centre – Colwood
- Thetis Lake Park - View Royal
- Mount Wells - Langford
- Jocelyn Hill - Highlands
- Lone Tree Hill - Highlands
- San Juan Ridge - past Jordan River

On other parts of Vancouver Island

- Eagle Heights - Shawnigan Lake
- Mount Tzouhalem Ecological Reserve - Duncan
- Church yard at Maple Bay Rd & Tzouhalem Rd - Duncan
- Cowichan River Footpath – Lake Cowichan

- Honeymoon Bay Ecological Reserve – Lake Cowichan
- Somenos Garry Oak Preserve – Duncan
- Harewood Plains - Nanaimo
- Jack Point - Nanaimo
- Rhododendron Lake – Nanoose
- Nanoose Hill – Nanoose
- Mount Washington – Courtenay
- Mount Arrowsmith – Port Alberni

Further Afield:

- Mainland - Manning Park, Cathedral Lakes
- Washington State – Olympic National Park, Hurricane Ridge
- Washington State – Colockum Pass